grand or rather gros monarque whom he represents.

Prince William Henry is created Duke of Clarence-

Brskine, the lawyer, having joked too severely upon the poverty of his party, the Buffs and Blues[1] sent him to Coventry; but upon proper repentance, he was again received into the set, and asked Mr. Fox if, having now made every necessary concession, he might not hope to regain once more the confidence of the party. " My dear fellow," answered Fox, "your own confidence is enough to satisfy any man; what can you want with any more ?st

FROM MRS. SWINBURNE TO HER HUSBAND.

Versailles, May loth, 1789.

I hope you received my letter to say Harry had arrived safe and well. M. de Beauveau presented him to the Prince de Lambesc, and he was almost immediately installed among the King's pages. The education he will there receive is considered to be in every respect excellent. There is
